Blueberry expansion · aquaculture (trout, redclaw crayfish) · Muscovy duck and processing · hydroponic fodder and greens · poultry-manure fertiliser · agritourism · expansion onto adjoining land

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

Not a financial investor and not a buyer. An operating partner with experience in agriculture or aquaculture that brings its own team and technology, sets up production, trains local staff and takes operational control. The current owners provide the land, the infrastructure already built and liaison with state authorities.

STRUCTURE

A company in the Astana International Financial Centre (AIFC, English-law jurisdiction) runs operations under a long-term land-use or joint-activity agreement; the land stays with the cooperative — the form Kazakh law allows for foreign participation. Initial investment for entry: KZT 220 million, as partial reimbursement of historical costs; further terms agreed individually.
